

Other Courses That I Teach

8th grade BOOST Math and Reading - Math will be taught during the fall semester with reading being taught in the spring semester. This course allows students to get specific interventions to boost their math skills as well as reading skills and comprehension.

Middle School Credit Recovery - This course is for students who were unable to receive credit for a core subject from the previous grade. The student will use the Apex Learning online program to accomplish this goal.